

SAMPLE FORM, NOT FOR OFFLINE COMPLETION

SPORTS ORGANIZATION OF THE YEAR

This category recognises an organisation that has demonstrated exceptional performance, leadership, and a positive contribution to the Middle East sports ecosystem during the eligibility period (1st January 2025 – 31st December 2025). Applicants must have delivered impactful sports programmes, events, services, or development initiatives aimed at athletes, fans, communities, youth, coaches, or the sports industry workforce.

Entries should provide an evidence-based strategy or programme framework, outlining clear objectives and key activities. Submissions must include robust, measurable data demonstrating impact, such as participation numbers, performance outcomes, community reach, or organisational achievements; and three testimonials from relevant stakeholders (athletes, partners, or beneficiaries).

Additionally, documentation must highlight organisational growth, innovation, and effective governance, alongside the qualifications and expertise of the management or coaching leadership.

JUDGING CRITERIA

Judges will assess the quality of programmes and services delivered, including sports initiatives, events, or services, alongside commitment to athlete development, fan engagement, and industry advancement.

Innovation and growth will be considered, including adoption of new ideas, technologies, or creative approaches, as well as organisational expansion or strategic improvements during the eligibility period.

Impact and measurable results should be demonstrated through data-supported outcomes such as participation, performance, community reach, and engagement, along with positive influence on athletes, communities, and the wider sports ecosystem. Evidence, testimonials, or case studies validating achievements are encouraged.

Judges will consider long-term contribution and legacy, including initiatives, partnerships, or community benefits that demonstrate sustained value to the sports industry.
